Strange Noises Followed by Sickening Thuds

SCARE FOLKS AT BATTLE CREEK

And Create a Mystery-An Old Report Verified-News of the State in Paragraphs.

SATTLE CREEK, Jan. 22.-People liv ing on McCamly, Barney and Carlyle streets, and Hamblin avenue, have been disturbed during the past ten days by peculiar sounds which have on several occasions been plainly noticeable by all members of several families. The sounds came from below the surface, and seemed to be caused by the fall of a neavy body of some kind, which shakes the houses on their foundations. H. R. Stoudt of Hamblin avenue, reports that Friday night about 10 o'clock there was a very heavy fall and jar, and a sound as of water splashing, plainly heard by several members of the family. Saturday night the entire family of Mr. Stevens, residing on Barney street, a quarter of a mile from Mr. Stoudt's rushed from the house, terrified at the subterranean noise and shock. The mysterious rumblings and splashings are accounted for by the theory that an underground stream is undermining its banks and masses of earth fall into the current. Fears are expressed that when the ground thaws the crust above this stream will cave in and cause much damage to properly and possibly loss of life. This fact gives credence to the newspaper story which was nublished several years ago giving the alleged experience of a young man who, while swimming in Goguao lake, two miles from the location of the disturbances above referred to, was drawn into an underground current which carried him directly under this territory and discharged him into the Kalamazoo river, near Barney street.

AFTER MANY YEARS Captain Simons Beturns to His Home and Friends,

St. Joseph, Mich., Jan. 22.—There is an esteemed couple living here who have twice been before the marriage aliar to the securely the knot which it was thought at the first visit united them to death. The case is an Enoch Arden story in which the fortunes of Mrs. Arden are followed pretty closely and little attention paid to Enoch himself. Back in the seventies, Capt. Simons, well-known here, disappeared from home and all trace of him was lost. For years he was given up as dead by the heart-broken widow and children. Twelve years ago Mrs. Simons, the supposed widow, was married to Noble Martin of Royalten township, and they have lived happily ever since. But their domestic felicity was slightly disturbed a few days ago when the news came that Mr. Simons had been discovered alive and well. They were quite frustrated, naturally, but Mr. Martin was not long in consulting the proper authorities in regard to his case. Act-ing upon the advice of a lawyer, a divorce was secured for Mrs. Martin from husband No. 1 on the ground of desertion, and the other day Mr. and Mrs. Martin procured a license and were again legally married.

FELL GROM THE TRUCKS. A Youth Besumbed by Cold Lets Go His Hold and Is Killed

WEST BAY CITY, Mich., Jan. 22.-David Low has been employed for sev-eral weeks in the shippards of this city, but last week went on a protracted spree. When he returned to work some of his fellows twitted him considerably upon his actions, and he notified his foreman that he would not stay any longer. Wednesday night he informed the people with whom he boarded that he was going to Detroit, where his foreman of the dry-dock engine works. He had no money and said he would beat his way down. Yesterday modning the chief of police was notified that Low's body had been found alongside the Fint & Pere Marquette tract, just across the Saginaw county line. He had evidently tried to ride to Detroit under the cars, and as the weather had been bitter cold, soon became so numb that he lost his hold and fell under the whoels.

Footpad at Ionia. Ionia, Jan. 22.—Miss Elia Scarlett, a maleswoman employed in Whitney's bazaar, and a lady well known in the city, met with quite a thrilling adven-ture, on her way home last evening. She left the store early—about 7 o'clock, and had company most of the way to ber home on North Jeffer-son street, Miss Scheurer leaving her en arriving at her own home just beyond the water works. She passed on but in a few minutes a man passed her and then turned and assaulted her, at the same time demanding her money. He was frightened away before he se-sured her purse. Elijah W. Morgan Dead.

Ann Amora, Jan. 22.—One of Ann Arbor's oldest pioneers, Elijah W. Morgan, died yesterday. About 1830 he came here and was elected prosecuting attorney. He was the first president of the T. & A. A. road and a director of the old bank of Washlenaw. Altogether he was one of most prominent men of this vicinity, having held various public offices. He donated one offith of the land on which the univarious public offices. He donated one-fifth of the land on which the university is situated.
